Screws Being Gradually Put Upon the Strikers--Sheriff Brings Reinforcements.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 14.—Despite orders of the miners' officials the campers at Turtle Creek and Sandy Creek attempted to march on the mines this morning, but deputies are alert and both bodies were forced to break ranks and return to their camps.
There was the same show of resistance made by the campers at Sandy Creek this morning that occurred at Plum Creek yesterday.

They began to march three and a half hours earlier than usual in order to outwit the deputies, but the plan failed and twenty-six deputies met them and read the injunction; at first there was resistance, but when the deputies pressed forward the strikers quickly broke and returned to their quarters.
As a result twenty-two diggers went into the mines this morning.

At Turtle Creek the men had just formed on the road where the deputies appeared; after a short parley the strikers withdrew quickly.

Output of the mines shows an increase. The situation at Plum Creek is a victory for the company, so far as the operating mines are concerned.
There was no marching, the strikers having decided to obey Dolan's orders to discontinue marching until after the injunction proceedings next Monday.

All was quiet during the night and the campers and deputies had a good night's rest. The output was twenty-seven cars.

The sheriff arrived at seven this morning with an additional force of deputies and they were distributed throughout the district to prevent all marching, even in squads of three or four. The strikers decided to go about the pits in groups of two to four, but this will not be permitted by Sheriff Towny.

This morning chief deputy Richards, of De Armit's and two deputies went to Clarksville on a scouting tour.
They found seven small bodies of men on the road; they were stopped by the deputies, the injunction read to them and they were ordered to disperse.
The men invariably obeyed the order.
It is said the purpose of this trip to Clarksville was to secure names for the purpose of entering them in the proceedings for contempt of court.
Some names were obtained, President Dolan's among them, also Bill Eng-ham, Paul Primers and James Bruce.

Distressing news comes from Moon Run district, where three hundred families are said to be in want. It has been seven weeks since these miners went out; at that time they had little or nothing ahead. Much sickness is said to prevail and funds have been started for distribution.

Norwegian Steamer Sights a Large Balloon near Haugesund.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

STANAUGER, Norway, Aug. 14.—The Norwegian steamship Kong Halfdan, which arrived here today reports that at 4:50 this morning she sighted a large balloon between Haugesund and Ryxarden. The balloon was about fifteen hundred feet high and was travelling east southeast and a guide rope two hundred feet long was hanging from the balloon car.

It is considered possible that the balloon may be Andree's; others think that it is Cetti, the aeronaut who ascended yesterday from Urendal.

TOWN COMMISSIONERS MEET.

Board Did Little That is Worthy of Note.

A considerable crowd of visitors were present at the meeting of the Board of Commissioners last night and little business was transacted.
All the members were present except Mr. Pickard, who was detained at home.

The sewerage committee made a report recommending that the sewer on Sycamore street be extended as far as Abe. Rev. J. A. Cunningham had offered to pay half the expenses of construction and on that basis the report of the committee was adopted.

Messrs. C. H. Ireland, J. W. Scott and J. Speight Hunter appeared before the Board in behalf of the Industrial and Immigration Association and asked that the time within which the Street Railway was to be taken up be extended sixty days. Mr. Hunter stated that they were in correspondence with some parties regarding the operation of the road. On motion of Mr.
Thornton the extension was granted.

The Summit Avenue matter was called up and on motion of Mr. Frazier the committee before appointed to consider, it was asked to confer with Cesar Cone and report to an adjourned meeting of the Board of Aldermen on next Friday night. There being no further business the Board adjourned.

Asleep in Jesus.

Little Robert, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Crutchfield, died last night, after a lingering illness of some weeks. The funeral will be held from the residence of Mr. Crutchfield this afternoon at 5 o'clock, the services being conducted by Rev. Dr. Weaver, pastor of the family.

The All-Wise Father, who doeth all things well, allowed the little one to remain on earth only seventeen months but during this short time it found its way into the affections of all who knew it, and its death is a sad blow to the father and mother.

Another Religious Paper.

A plan is on foot to establish a new religious paper in Greensboro at an early date. We are not at liberty to in September. It will not be in opposition to any paper now published in Greensboro.

"HEAVEN" THE SUBJECT.

CLOSING SERMON AT THE GOS-PEL TENT LAST NIGHT.

Evangelist Lee Preaches with Characteristic Feeling and Fervor, Power and Pathos.

The tent was well filled last night to hear Mr. Lee's last sermon in the present series of meetings at least. Notwithstanding the fact that last night was the thirteenth night Mr. Lee had stood before the people to preach, his voice was as clear as a bell, and he appeared as vigorous as when he first came among us to begin the meeting.

Mr. Lee took his text from Revelations 7:13-14, preaching on the subject of "Heaven." He described the Apostle's vision as a grand excursion to the third heaven. The sights the Apostle saw on this excursion were amazing. The scenery was grand; he heard enchanting music of the softest and sweetest melody; everything was full of joy and happiness. But the thing that impressed him most was the great throng of people clothed in white robes, their countenances beaming with happiness. There were no deformities there; no sorrow, no pain, no sickness, no death—all was joy.
When John inquired as to who these were he was told that "These are they who have come up out of great tribulation." They had washed their robes in the Lamb's blood of life and become white as snow.

In this world we all have troubles and trials, sickness and death, gladness and grief, glory and mourning, sunshine and shadow. There is no union of hearts here that knows no end. In heaven, that city of celestial splendor and infinite joy, things will be entirely different. So there is a bright side to every one's life. No matter how rough our pathway on earth may be, it is our blessed privilege to have the hope of a home beyond the grave, where all tears shall be wiped away and where there shall be no more partings.

There is something peculiar in the description God gives us of heaven. It is described almost entirely in the negative. Very little is told of what we shall find in heaven, but we are told what we shall not find there. We know that the sad experiences of the present life will not be felt or known there. When God tells us we know that means. When we are told that in heaven there is no separation and no death, no grave, no nodding plumes and hearse, no chanting of requiems, we have an idea of what heaven is and want to go there.

God makes heaven more attractive by giving His children a foretaste of heaven in this life. It is the privilege of every child of God to live on the verge of heaven. The Christian religion makes us happy in this world and draws us nearer to God and heaven by giving us this foretaste of the heavenly life.

The preacher admonished those who have recently put on the armor of Christ to keep on board the old ship of salvation. The storms of life may be rough; trials and temptations may and will come, but don't be discouraged. Be determined to keep faith in God no matter what it costs, and by and bye the struggle will be over, the voyage will have ended, and you will be at home.

Mr. Lee believes in heavenly recognition. He says we will know more there than we do here, and we will recognize our loved ones who have gone on before, and are waiting and watching for us. "Oh, ye whose hearts are buried in the graves of loved ones, sit no longer in the tombs of blasted expectations, but lift up your eyes and hearts to heaven and receive consolation from Him who wept with the sisters of Bethany."

At the conclusion of the sermon Mr.
Lee very kindly thanked the ministers who have aided and assisted him in the meeting, the choir for their valuable services in furnishing the music, and the people who have encouraged him by their presence and attention.

Prof. Humphries ("Brother John") should not be overlooked as an important factor in the meeting. He is a good singer, a splendid choral leader, and a cultured Christian gentleman.
He has made friends here who wish to have him among us again.

Miss Lizzie Crocker deserves special mention and praise for the valuable assistance she rendered as organist.
She is a splendid musical scholar and has done faithful service as organist during the meetings.

Bishop Turner, of the A. M. E. church, who resides in Atlanta, Ga., passed through today going north.
He had quite a chat with a number of his brethren in black while the car stopped.

GATHERING AT RED SPRINGS.

Tomorrow Closes the Most Successful Chataqua Yet Held.

Mr. R. W. Brooks has just returned from the Sunday School Chataqua at Red Springs and tells us it has been the most successful yet held. There are larger crowds, more enthusiasm, better music and a more elaborate and well carried-out program from year to year. Many are in attendance from other States, South Carolina being well represented. People are pouring in to the very last; two train loads arrived yesterday.

Mr. Brooks stated that the end toward which the Chataqua is working is twofold: the extension of Sunday School work to districts now without it, and the evolution of a higher type of Sunday School work throughout the State by the gradual introduction of those methods which have shown the best results in practical operation, and increasing the efficiency of the Sunday School worker. Special features of the Chataqua have been the object lesson teaching of a Sunday School class after normal methods, the pantomic singing of John E. Ray, of the Deaf, Dumb and Blind Institution in Raleigh, the humorous lecture of C. C.
Brown, of South Carolina, on Courtship, and Dr. Barron's address on Wednesday which was declared a superb oratorical effort.

The Chataqua has appointed a committee to take under advisement the propositions of the various places offering a permanent home. Thus far propositions have come from Red Springs and Marion, the latter offering ten acres of land and buildings. It has not been settled yet, however, that the Chataqua will select any fixed place for its annual meetings. Some doubt the wisdom of such a course.
The Chataqua closes its work tomorrow.

Needs Attention.

A gentleman calls our attention to the fact that just at this season there are many sections of our city that demand special attention at the hands of the sanitary policeman. People eat watermelons and canteloupes and throw the rinds and other rubbish out in back lots.

This stuff becomes decayed and is liable to create much sickness. People should be careful where they throw their rubbish just at this season.

Something to Admire.

When a true-blue Kentuckian gets in the saddle on a Kentucky bred horse it is a combination worth looking at. Mr. T. W. Arrasmith was exercising his handsome bay gelding a few mornings ago, changing at will his gait from single foot to trot and from trot to canter.

WELL SAID.

The following from the Norfolk Landmark so commends itself for its good old fashioned sense that we would call special attention to it. The writer is commenting on the fact that in the West women prisoners are worked on the chain gang.

"Everybody knows that such a thing as committing women to work at rock-breaking and street-paving would be out of the question in the East and South, where woman suffrage has not yet developed any great strength. May it not be true that woman suffrage is already having its effect in the Western communities where women prisoners have to work in the chain-gang in overalls just as male criminals do? The community which can permit and endorse this sort of thing must be blunted in its conception of woman's rights in the higher sense, and we venture the suggestion that this state of affairs may be attributed to the realization of 'woman's rights' in the lower political sense. This is no laughing matter. It is a serious problem, worthy of the deepest reflection. It has always been our belief that women, if they should allow themselves to be 'traged down' to the ballot, would in due time find themselves regarded as the equals instead of the superiors of men in other respects. Developments in sections in which women have obtained the ballot seem to uphold that opinion."

The question of woman suffrage is not a burning one in the South but we have its effects here so pertinently pointed out that it is well worth considering. Emancipation evidently does not emancipate sometimes.

SENATOR BUTLER is beginning to find out that the way of the reformer, like that of the transgressor, is hard. He says the railroad commission is another case of "bought-us-up." It is quite reasonable to enquire if the Southern has bought up this commission, would it not probably do the same with the one he would have elected by the people. Can it be possible that all the reformers are not honest? We are afraid that the only way the Senator can get an incorruptible commission is to get himself appointed on it. It is such an uncomfortable state for a leader—this feeling that he is the only honest man in his party.

THE temperature is still rising in the Senatorial campaign in South Carolina. Senator McLaurin fainted from over-exertion the other day. We should not be surprised to hear that both the leading candidates had fallen victims to apoplexy. It is dreadfully trying to carry a big head of patriotism in August.

POM KWANG SOH is dying from too violent exercise on the bicycle. Wheelmen should take warning. If a bicycle can kill a man who has lived with a name like that tagged on to him it must be a veritable engine of destruction.

It is by no means beyond the range of possibilities that Sherman, if asked to resign his Secretaryship, may make it uncomfortably warm for Mr. Hanna in Ohio. It is said the old man still has lucid intervals.

THE King of Ashantee makes complaint that out of a hundred wives England has only left him two. Well, well, what will Johnny Bull claim next?

DOTS FROM EDITORIAL QUILLS.

People laugh at cranks who suggest the faith cure as a cure for disease. But they don't laugh at the fellows who suggest tariff taxation as a remedy for business depression, and a booster of prosperity. One is about as sensible and reasonable as the other.—Wilmington Star.

It would seem that the Ohio Populists brought a deep enough humiliation upon the Democrats when, in their convention Wednesday, they refused to fuse with them again. But there was yet a lower depth. The same convention which repudiated fusion with the Democrats turned around and nominated Coxey for governor.—Charlotte Observer.

The removal of cotton ties and binding twine from the free list was neither for protection nor for revenue, as the returns of trade clearly prove, but to give the trusts an opportunity to put their long arms deeper into the pockets of the people. These are only small examples of the entire spirit of the Dingley tariff. On one of its faces is written: "A Tariff for the Trusts." On its other face is written: "A Tariff for Smugglers and Contrabandists." But in not one of its features can be discerned: "A Tariff for the People."—Goldsboro Headlight.

Before parting from the Czar the Kaiser conferred upon his host the dignity of Admiral in the German fleet, and the Russian Emperor reciprocated in kind; whereupon the two great potentates donned appropriate uniforms, and each drank the health of his brother-in-arms of the fleet to which he had "the honor of belonging." The Kaiser being now a Russian Admiral, and the Czar an Admiral of the German navy, peace between the two empires ought to be deemed well assured; for neither Emperor could go to war with the other without becoming guilty of treason, mutiny and desertion.—Philadelphia Record.

The State Populist Executive Committee meets in Raleigh today. Senator Butler says the meeting is called for the purpose of discussing the situation, and outlining the policy of the party in the next campaign which is a year off. They seem to think that the old adage, "the early bird catches the worm," is the correct thing. Well, when we look back a few years, and remember those high up in the councils of the party who used to come around this way telling the farmers of their down-trodden condition, and then turn our eyes and look for those same fellows today, we can hardly blame them for believing in the old adage—they are all in soft government places and drawing big salaries; but what have they done for the down-trodden farmers?—Roxboro Courier.

Many cities the size of Winston-Salem fall into the habit of ordering from larger cities a great many goods that can be made at home. They get no better quality and at no cheaper prices, but often times get an inferior article which proves to be of high cost in the long run. Every city should patronize its own industries first. Unless this is strictly done, it is all nonsense to talk about inviting new industries to come here. If we do not sustain those here already it is not probable that we will sustain new ones. If what we want is not made here, let us go to work and raise the standard. By legitimate business efforts this can be done. It will not be done, however, so long as we make our purchases in a foreign field and thereby send all our money from the city.—Winston Sentinel.

Cigar and Cigarette Stamps Ready.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—It is stated at the internal revenue bureau that there will be no further delay in the delivery of all cigarette and cigar stamps that may be ordered. A large quantity was shipped to New York on yesterday, and at present there are no requisitions unfilled. The delay in a measure was caused by the breaking of one of the plates. The fact, too, that the new law went into immediate effect upon its passage, precipitated a vast amount of work on the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, but the congestion is now relieved and all orders will be filled at once.

THE BALTIMORE WEEKLY SUN.
The Weekly Sun publishes all the news of each week, giving complete account of all events of interest throughout the country and world. As an agricultural paper The Weekly Sun is unsurpassed. It is edited by writers of practical experience, who know what farming means and what farmers want in an agricultural journal. It contains regular reports of the work of the Agricultural Experiment Stations throughout the country, of the proceedings of Farmers' Clubs and Institutes and the discussion of new methods and ideas in agriculture. Its market reports, poultry department and veterinary column are particularly valuable to country readers. Every issue contains stories, poems, household and puzzle columns, a variety of interesting and instructive selected matter and other features, which make it a welcome visitor in city and country homes alike.
One dollar a year. Inpayments to get up of clubs for the Weekly Sun. Both the Daily and Weekly Sun mailed free of postage in the United States, Canada and Mexico. Payments invariably in advance. Address

ABOUT BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

[All books and magazines mentioned below may be had at Wharton's book store.]

LITTLE Brown and Company have the first two volumes of the subscription edition of Francis Parkman's works ready.

A NOTABLE volume of biography is the life of Dr. Jowett, the late master of Balliol College, Oxford. Jowett was, as writer and pedagogue, an able and eccentric man, but one who wielded a wide influence. The price of the book, ten dollars, is not likely to place it in many libraries.

CURRENT Literature for August contains many of the very best things of the day. In the American Poets of Today Series, F. M. Hopkins deals with John James Platt. The selections given are fairly representative of the authors' work, the too little known "Dream of Church Windows," being among them—a poem that is rich with sunset colors, and one that few minor poets have surpassed. In the department of verse there is little that is worthy of attention, unless it be the "Erl-King's Daughter," by James Clarence Mangan. In dialect verse some of the selections are excellent.

WE are pleased to note a change for the better in Munsey; there is a little less of soda water and somewhat more of solid food in it. Actresses who are not much to see on the stage, and even less in the pages of a magazine, have ceased to grin and pose at you from every page of the magazine and the pictures of people who have been, or now are, figures on the real stage, have taken their places. The "Christian," of Hall Caine's, and "Corleone," of Marion Crawford's continue "to be continued" with "un-flagging energy" as the nominating speech hath it. Thomas B. Reed has an article on "The Making of the Constitution," and there are stories and stories. Altogether if you have nothing to do Munsey will help you admirably in the undertaking.

RICHARD Harding Davis' "Soldiers of Fortune" still continues to be very popular. It is an entertaining story, neither very new in conception nor perfect in execution. It is the same old story of the American in contact and contrast with the Spanish American, that has been dished up for us in dozens of forms by various literary caterers for years. The book belongs to a class and it would be harsh criticism to say it is the best of its class.
There is an odor of melodrama about its tragedy that suggests Mr. Davis' reportorial days on a metropolitan journal—it is, compared with other books it were easy to mention, like the scenes of a bad dream compared with the reality. You feel that the blood spilt is not so very red after all and the heartaches are like unto those of the summer maiden. Mr. Davis will probably do better than the "Soldiers of Fortune" before he secures any very lofty place in American literature.

WE are in receipt of the first number of the North Carolina Journal of Education. Prof. P. P. Claxton, of the Normal and Industrial college here, and Logan D. Howell, superintendent of City Schools, Raleigh, are the editors. Some such journal as this has been long needed in the State and, judging from this initial number, we feel that it will meet the requirements of the field. The articles are ably written, clear-cut, practical.
Walter D. Toy, of the University of North Carolina, contributes a paper on Modern Language Study and its Practical Value. Prof. C. F. Tomlinson, principal of the West End Graded school, Winston, has a paper on "Civil Government in the Public Schools" that should be read by every parent and teacher in the State. There are also contributions from the principals of city schools in Raleigh, Concord and Statesville. Miss M. W.
Halliburton writes entertainingly on "Nature Study, or Elementary Science." The subscription price is only 50 cents a year, and it should receive the liberal support it so well deserves.

Compromise to be Accepted.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 13.—Some of the ambassadors have not yet received the replies of their governments in regard to the evacuation compromise proposed by the Turkish Minister for Foreign Affairs, Tewfik Pasha, but it is believed the compromise will be accepted and that the peace preliminaries may be signed on Saturday.

On the Field of Honor.

LONDON, Aug. 13.—The Rome correspondent of the Daily Mail says: On its becoming known that the Count of Turin had left Italy to meet Prince Henri of Orleans, there was a lively interchange of telegrams between King Humbert, the Marquis di Rudini, the Italian Premier and Italian Embassy in Paris. It is feared that international complications may arise.

CROCAIL CLUB GERMAN.

Beauty and Chivalry Mingle in the Rhythmic Mazes.

A very delightful affair was the Crocail Club's August German at Bogart Hall last night. The dancing world was there to enjoy itself and it was not disappointed. For five hours beauty and chivalry tripped it on the polished floor to the inspiring strains of Greensboro's Orchestra, and when the hour came for the inexorable chaperones to declare the evening's pleasures over, the merry dancers felt that it had only just begun.

We cannot attempt a description of the many lovely costumes. Mr. Simpson Schenck with Miss Walker Fry led the German with his well known facility and was followed by Will McAdoo, with Miss Lizzie Lee Dick; Edward W. Myers, of Chapel Hill, with Miss Lillian Staples; Hal Mebane, with Miss Baach, of Roanoke, Va.; Howell Fry, with Miss Virginia Shober; Jim Scales, with Miss Sarah De Butts; Appleton Staples, with Miss Susie Reece; Temple Horry, with Miss Margaret De Butts; Giles Mebane, with Miss Madeline Douglas; Julian Price, with Miss Bessie Ballard; Casper Berger, with Miss Mabel Kase; A. H. Terry, with Miss Laura Ballard; Stephen A. Douglas, with Miss Hattie Colquit, of Washington, D. C.; Charles Cunningham, with Miss Blanche Haas, of Wheeling, W. Va.; John Carter, with Miss Flossie Settle; John Fariss, with Miss Brown; Michael Schenck, with Miss Virginia Bernard.

Stags—Col. James T. Morehead, Ed Gilmer, John Michaux, Louis Hankins, of Richmond, Va., Walter Kase, Lewis Howlett, Harry C. Martin, Arthur Rankin, C. N. Graves, Will Harvey, Neale Colquit, Washington, D. C., Garland Daniel, Richard De Butts, Wesley White, William Devine, George Tate, R. D. Douglas.

Chaperones—Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lindau, Mrs. Cator, Mrs. Woodruff, Mrs. Brantley, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Caldwell, Col. Morehead with Miss Lizzie Lindau.

Preparing to Open.

Messrs. Blaxton & Jennings, who have leased the new three-story brick building opposite the water tower, on South Elm street, are busy getting things in shape to open their line of furniture. The building is a new and handsome one, and the finishing touches are now being applied to the inside with the paint brush.

Both these young men are clever gentlemen, with experience in the furniture business, and we trust they will meet with success in our city. Mr. Blaxton is from Roanoke, Va., while Mr. Jennings is a native of Reidsville.

A Singer of Note.

Mr. W. J. Ramsey, of Durham, who was formerly associated with Evangelist Bill Fife in his revival work as a choral leader, came in from Danville yesterday.

Last night he sang "Throw Out the Life Line" at the gospel tent in a beautiful and touching manner. Tomorrow morning he will sing at West Market street church.

Mr. Ramsey is a clever young man, a christian gentleman and a splendid singer.

A Grown Melon.

Joe Stone was exhibiting to his friends a mammoth watermelon purchased from a wagon on the streets this morning. It was a large melon, weighing 54 pounds, and was one of the finest seen on this market during the year.

Mr. Stone bought it to send to Mr. F. Blackall, of Rochester, N. Y., who is pleasantly remembered by many of our people as the gentleman who put in our present fire alarm system.

Lawn Party.

A lawn party for the benefit of the Ladies' Aid Society of St. Andrew's church will be given at Mrs. Ballards' Tuesday night, the 17th. Ice cream and cake will be served.

If the weather continues as it is at present it will be a splendid time for a lawn party. Go out and encourage the ladies by helping a good cause.

The Peripatetics Enjoy a Feast.

The members of the Peripatetic Reading Club had a melon feast at Dr. Weaver's last evening, and the occasion was greatly enjoyed by all present. Chas. Weaver acted the part of host to perfection.

These social gatherings are a special feature of the Peripatetic club.

Thanks!

THE TELEGRAM force returns thanks to John Weatherly, Chief-of-Police Rees' clever clerk, for a share in a basket of fine grapes presented our business manager. They were indeed delicious and were enjoyed immensely.

A telegram to Mr. Rankin conveys the information that Mrs. R. I. Katz is not improved. Mr. Katz and Mr. Fishplate are both with her.
